SOBERWOMAN®

THE GILDED SENTINEL

ISSUE #1 — THE GENESIS OF SOBERWOMAN

AN ORIGINAL RECOVERY SUPERHERO COMIC BOOK
BASED ON REAL PRINCIPLES. BASED ON REAL HOPE.

THE CREATORS OF SOBERMAN

The Soberman concept was first discussed between Jim Quinn and Chris Makasimow while they attended a 30-day inpatient rehabilitation treatment session at Mirmont Treatment Center in Media, Pennsylvania. During their stay, they became fast friends and often fantasized about what it would be like to have a comic book series based solely on a superhero named Soberman, who would have tremendous healing powers and be able to zap people and get them to be sober. We would fantasize about this topic for days and come up with different storylines on how we would actually prepare these comic books.

Well, after long journeys through addiction and recovery, Chris and Jim finally got around to putting their ideas down on paper, and Soberman was born. We hope you enjoy the experience.

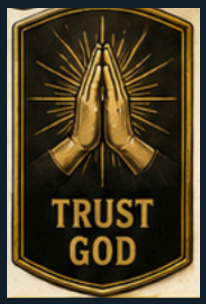

Jim Quinn

Jim is 69 years old and spent 45 years as an alcoholic and drug addict. His drinking career spanned nearly five decades, beginning at age 13. He progressed to drugs in his twenties and thirties and did not find the bitter end until January 31, 2012, his sobriety date. And with God's good graces, he'll have 15 years of continuous sobriety on January 31st, 2027.

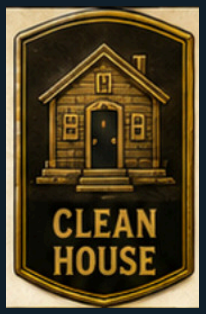

Chris Makasimow

Chris is 51 years old and began drinking and using drugs at 17. He describes more than 34 years of living with addiction and alcoholism, with many relapses along the way. "Yes, I'm a relapser," he says, "but I've got two years under my belt now." His sobriety date is February 3, 2024. By working on the Soberman Project with Jim Quinn, Chris hopes to stay on his path of continuous sobriety.

Soberman's mission is based on three pillars.

First pillar: Trust God.

Second pillar: Clean House.

Third pillar: Help Others.

KIM HARRIS BEFORE THE LIGHT

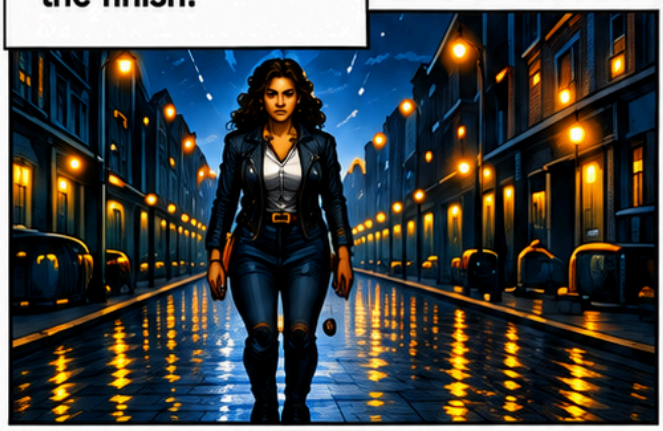

THE FIRST FRACTURE

The story of the Gilded Sentinel began one night in Conshohocken, Pennsylvania, when Kim made a bad decision.

Shame whispered that one mistake was the whole story.

Recovery would prove that the fracture was not the finish.

ONE BAD CHOICE DOES NOT DEFINE YOU.
BUT HIDING FROM THE TRUTH CAN.

THE HUNGRY GHOST

THE HUNGRY GHOST NEVER FILLS UP.
IT ONLY TAKES MORE.

THE ILLUSION OF FUNCTIONALITY

MASKS CRACK

Kim kept moving, smiling, producing, and pretending. But the mask of control cracked.

The truth finally became impossible to outrun, she needed help, and she needed it now.

YOU CAN'T OUTRUN WHAT YOU WON'T OUTGROW.
ADMITTING POWERLESSNESS IS THE FIRST SPARK OF CHANGE.

THE TURNING POINT

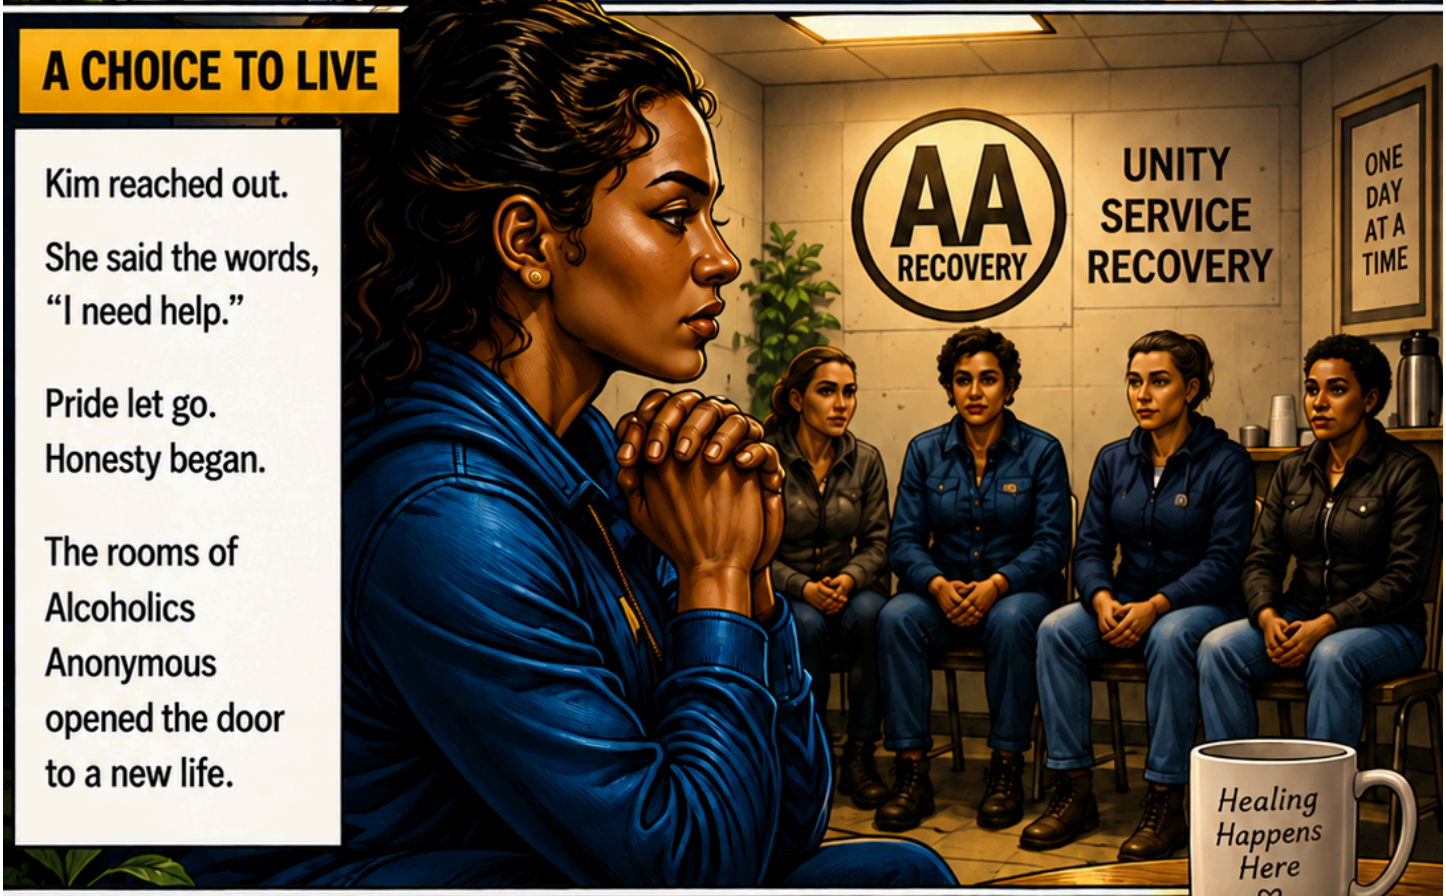

A CHOICE TO LIVE

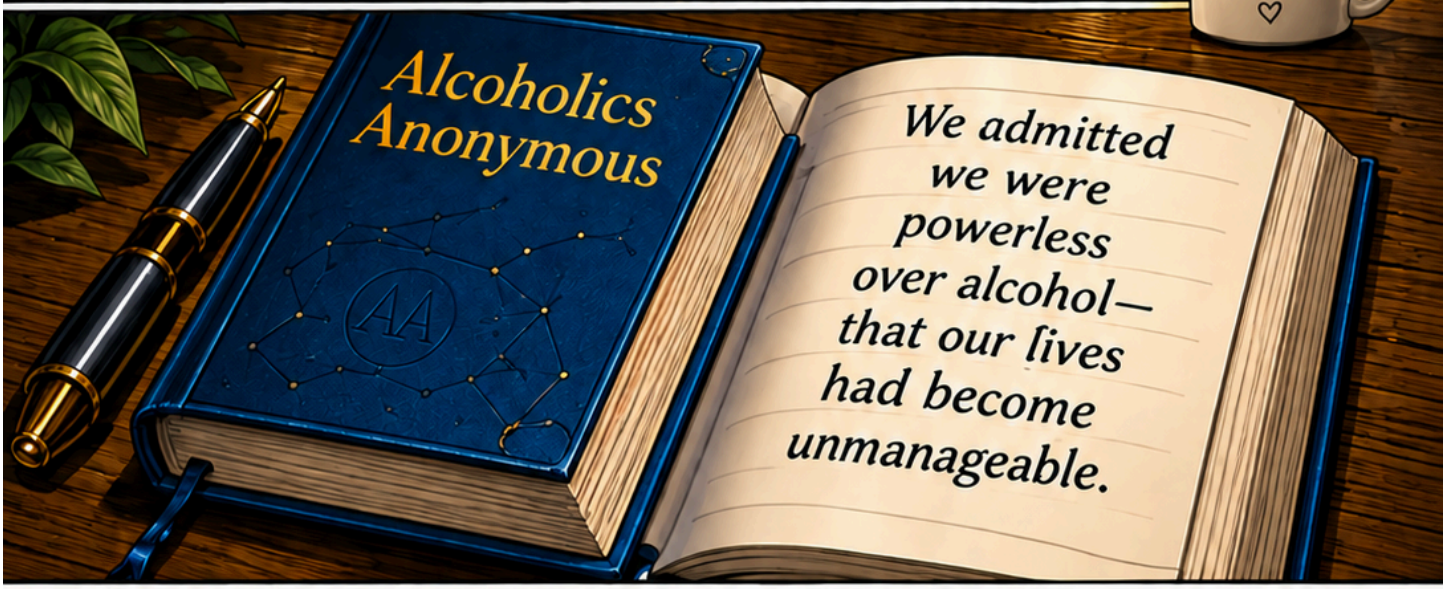

Kim reached out.

She said the words, “I need help.”

Pride let go. Honesty began.

The rooms of Alcoholics Anonymous opened the door to a new life.

THE FIRST TRUTH SETS YOU FREE.

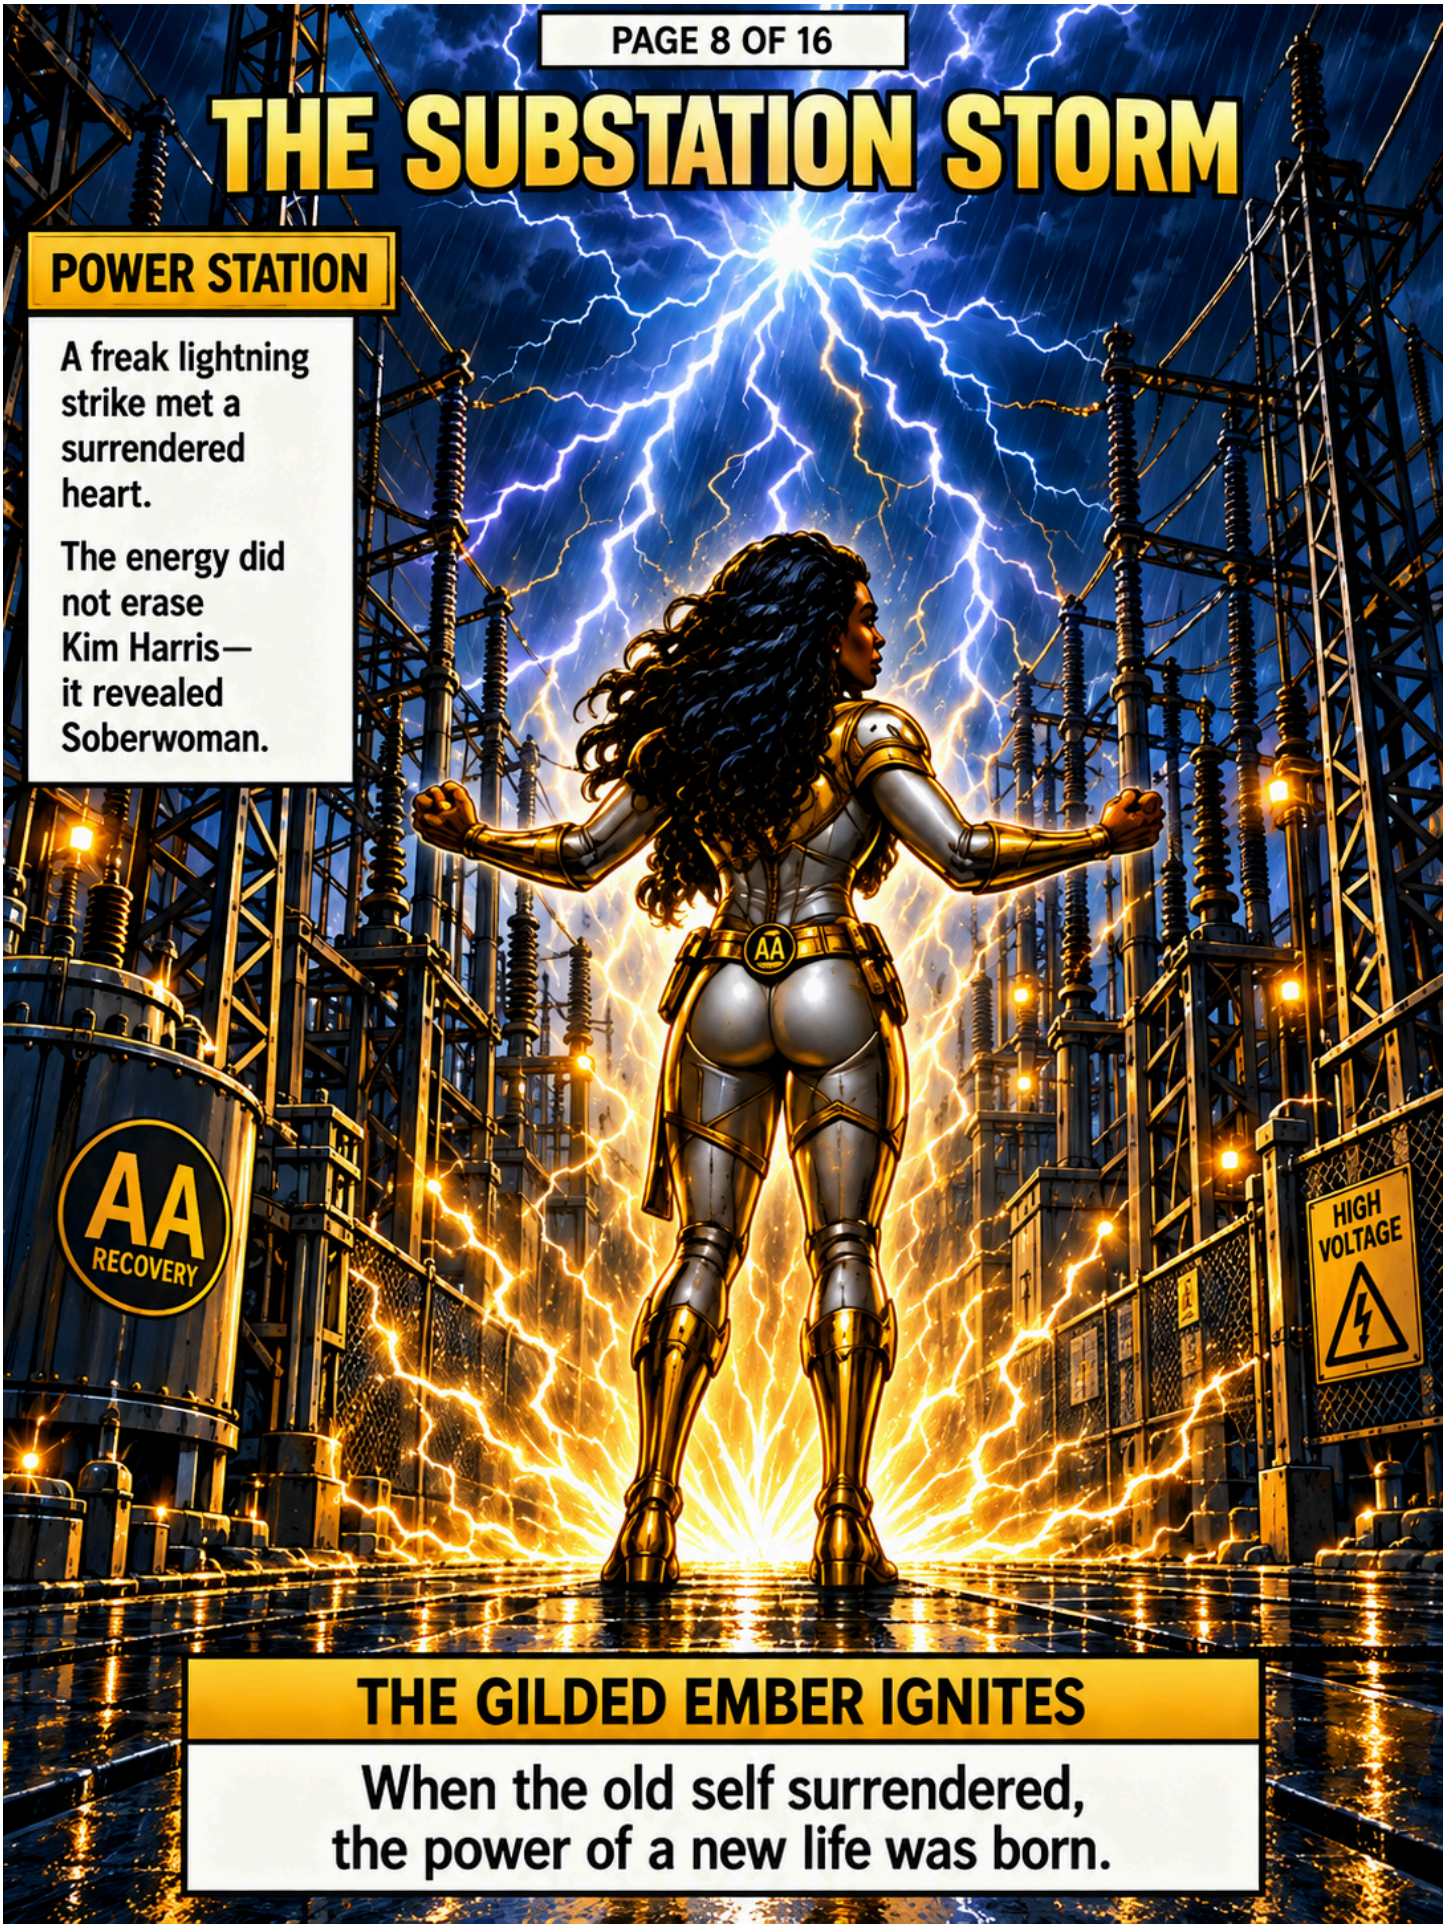

YOU DON’T HAVE TO DO THIS ALONE.

THE PATH OF THE THREE PILLARS

RECOVERY ISN'T A DESTINATION.
IT'S A DAILY DECISION.

Her mission is clear: carry the message to the still suffering.

SHE LISTENS.

SHE GUIDES.

SHE CONNECTS.

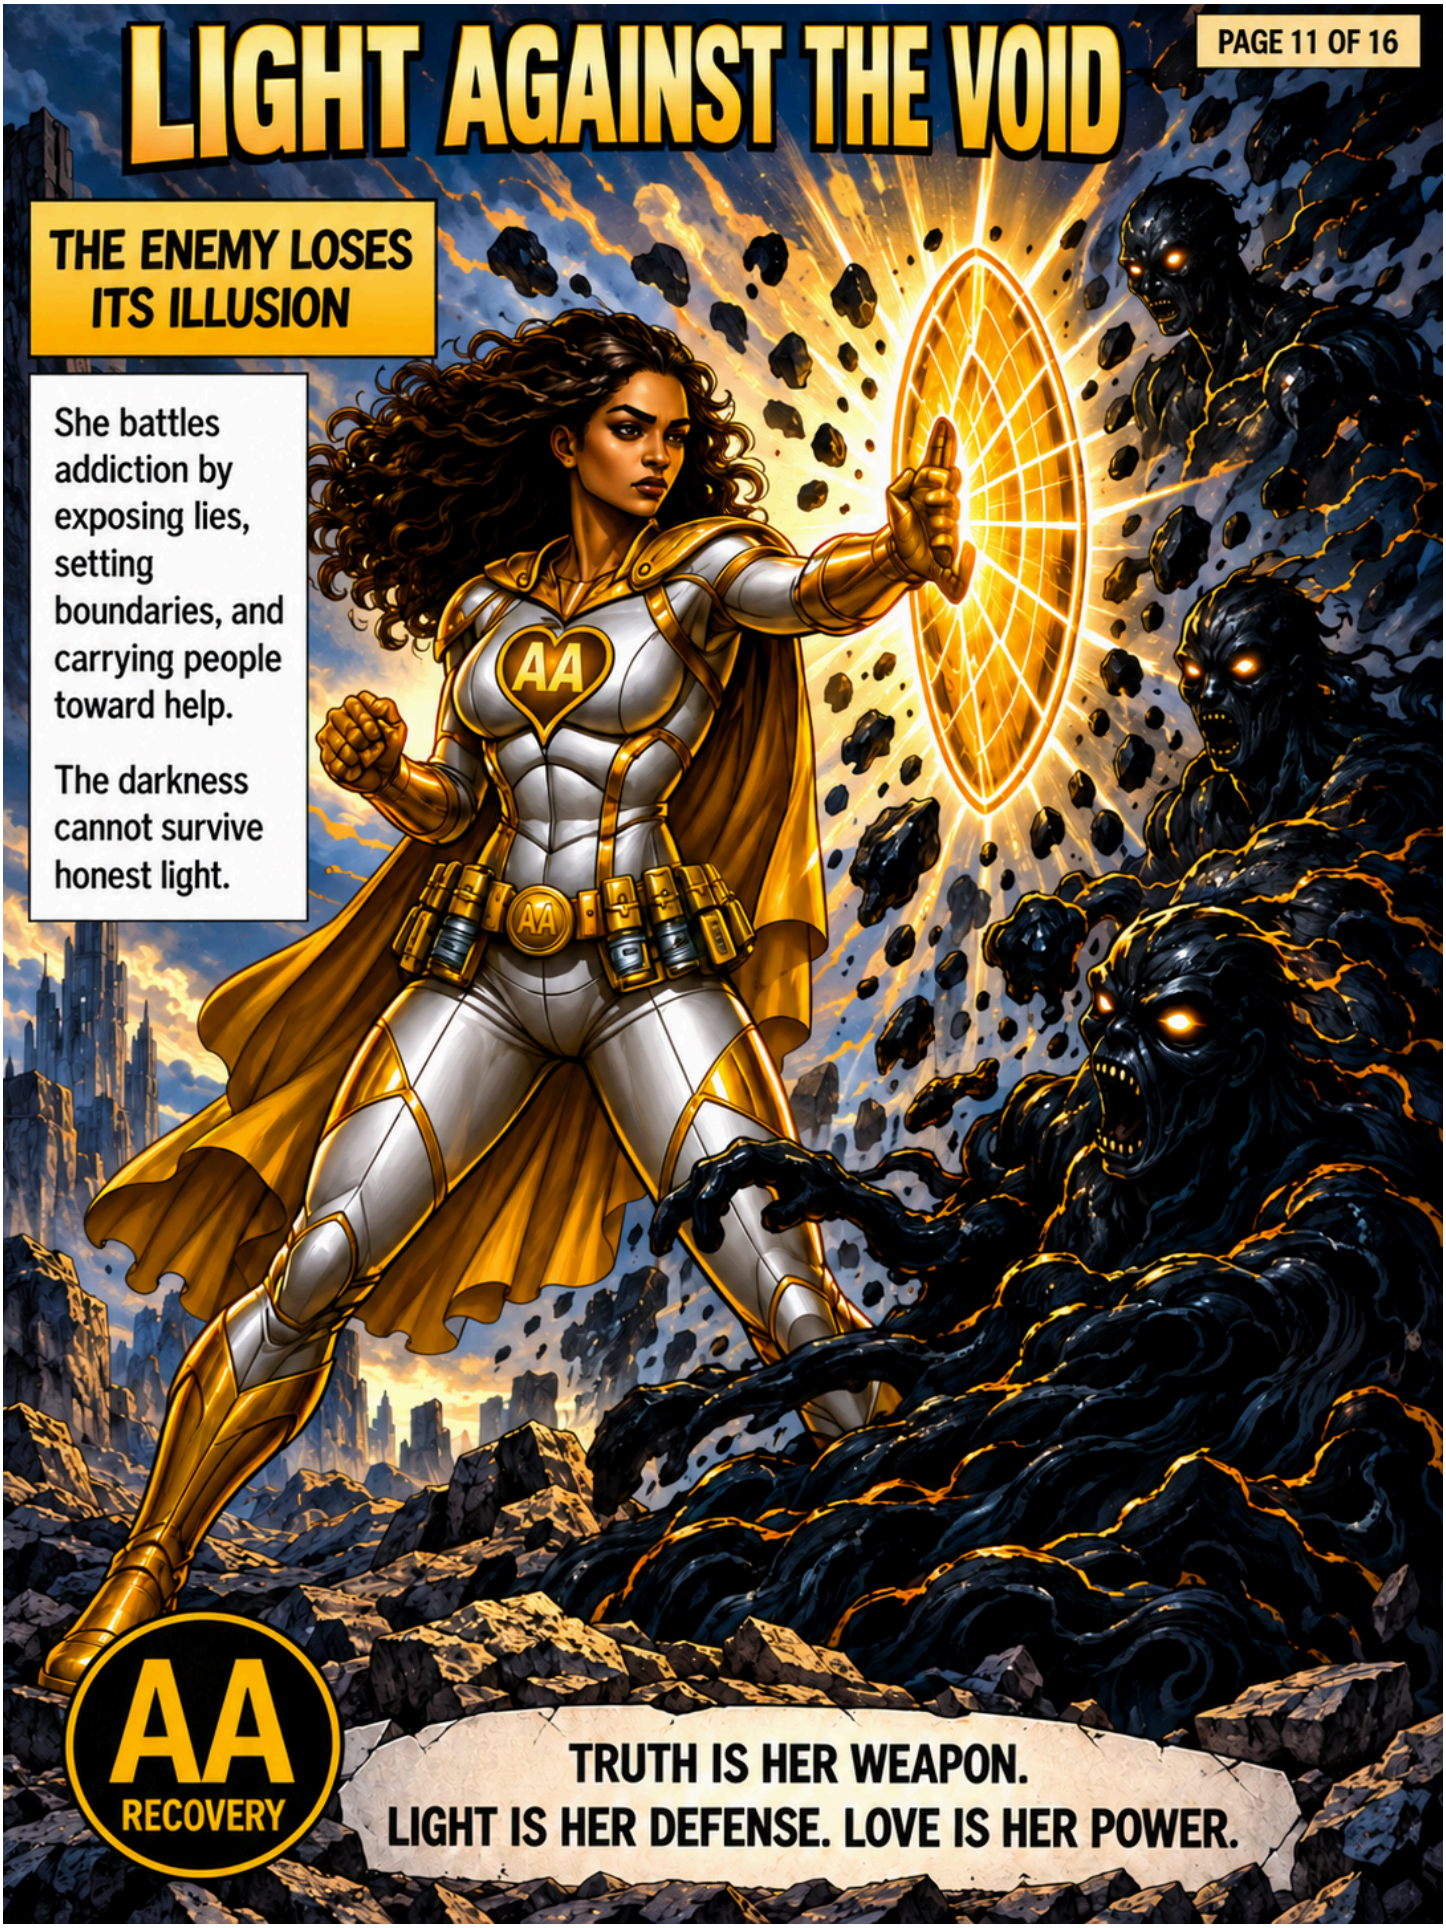

EVERY HERO HAS A CALLING. HERS IS RECOVERY.

LIGHT AGAINST THE VOID

THE ENEMY LOSES ITS ILLUSION

She battles addiction by exposing lies, setting boundaries, and carrying people toward help.

The darkness cannot survive honest light.

TRUTH IS HER WEAPON.
LIGHT IS HER DEFENSE. LOVE IS HER POWER.

THE TWELFTH STEP IN MOTION

TOGETHER

HELP OTHERS

Kim learned that power grows when it is given away.

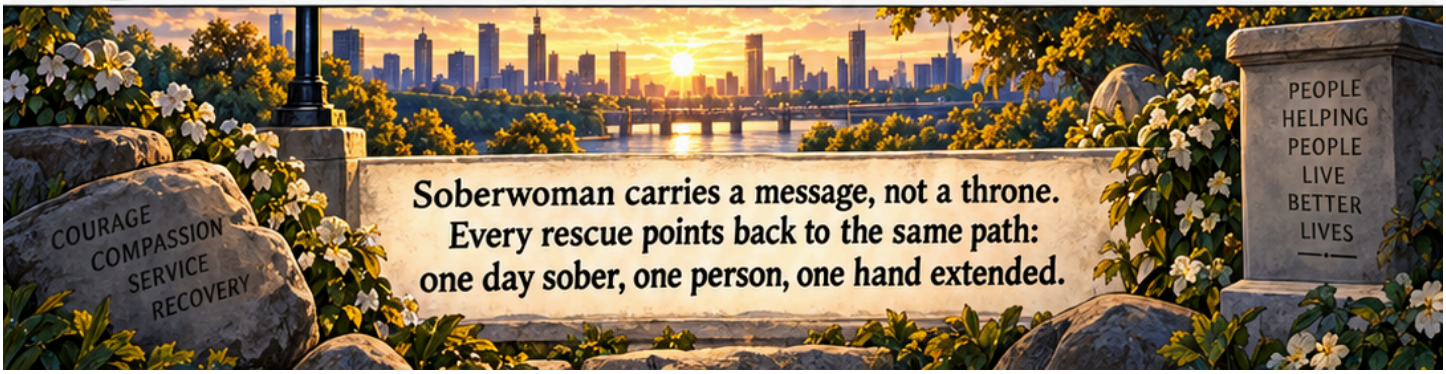

SERVICE KEEPS HER SOBER

RECOVERY IS POSSIBLE ONE DAY AT A TIME

Soberwoman carries a message, not a throne.

Soberman is a universe of printed comic books and web-based resources, united by one purpose: sobriety through storytelling. You're reading a printed comic now. To explore the rest of the universe, visit SoberManRecovery.com.

All of our comic books are available on the website, along with other valuable recovery resources. We invite you to explore both the printed stories and the online materials.

With grant funding, we hope to print our comics in bulk and deliver them to treatment centers, rehabilitation hospitals, emergency rooms, and other recovery-related settings. For now, most of our comics and resources are available online.

If you have a printed copy, hold on to it! We don't yet know when funding will allow us to print larger quantities of the other comics you'll find on our website.

Now you know how to explore the Soberman universe. We wish you all the best in your recovery and hope that sobriety through storytelling supports you on the journey ahead.
